

Fremantle Prison Excursion

Dear Parents and Caregivers

On Wednesday 14 June the Year Three and Four students will be attending an excursion to Fremantle Prison in Fremantle.

The tour will enable students to learn about the historical building and its history. The activities include the following:

- Explore the building and cells of Fremantle Prison and discover what life was like for a convict transported to the Swan River Colony.
- Learn about famous convicts such as Moondyne Joe and his many escapes.
- Engage with famous events such as the escape of the six Fenian convicts on the Catalpa.
- Lunch at Cicerello's.

Students will travel by bus leaving school at 9.15am and returning at approximately 2.00pm.

What to bring:

- Wattle bottle
- Hat

Please indicate on the slip below what your child will be ordering for lunch or alternatively they can bring their own lunch on the day.

Kind regards
