

Dear Parents/Caregivers

Students in B1 are taking part in the Therapy Focus 2017 Art Competition by creating artworks that illustrate the pages of a storybook entitled Ben Tries to Fly. Therapy Focus encourages greater understanding, acceptance and inclusion of children with special needs.

There will be 100 finalist artworks selected which will be displayed at Westfield Carousel, Whitford City and Innaloo shopping centres in the July school holidays. From this display, 21 artworks will be selected to feature as illustrations and cover of the published storybook.

The winning students and their families will be invited to attend a Book Lunch event in August during National Children's Book Week to celebrate the unveiling of the published storybook. Winners will be awarded a copy of the storybook, their framed original artwork and a prize pack.

If you do not wish for your child to participate please contact Miss Palmer or Mrs Louise.

Kind regards

Mrs Candice Louise (Visual Arts Specialist) and Miss Samantha Palmer (Year 3 Classroom Teacher)
